

Day 4 Feedback

2026 Intro to HPC Bootcamp
Participant Feedback and Evaluation

Next Steps, Feedback, and Reflections

Paige Kinsley

Bootcamp Director

Education Outreach Lead, Argonne Leadership Computing Facility

Argonne National Laboratory

August 14, 2026

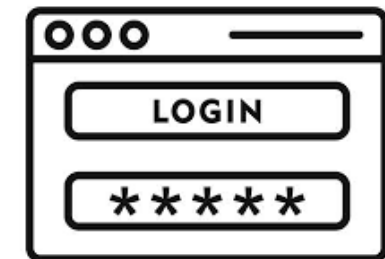

Perlmutter Access

- NERSC accounts will remain active through January 22, 2027
- Intro to HPC allocation (m4388) will remain available to run jobs through January 22, 2027

Stipend Next Steps

- For those who submitted W8 tax form:
 - Stipend checks will be sent via mail in the next few weeks
- For those who submitted information on Workday:
 - Ensure you have submitted tax information on Workday
 - Shared banking information? Stipend will be sent via direct deposit
 - Didn't share banking information? Stipend will be mailed via check
- Trouble logging on to Workday?
 - Ping Kristy Henmueller ASAP

Project Materials

- GitHub: All presentations, Jupyter notebooks, and project-specific materials will be uploaded to the Intro to HPC Bootcamp Github
- Website: All presentations and video recordings will be uploaded to the Intro to HPC Agenda

Staying Connected

- Slack
 - Will still be active after bootcamp
 - Warning: messages will begin to disappear after 90 days
- LinkedIn
 - Intro to HPC Alumni
- Intro to HPC Listserv
 - Subscribe for emails about future bootcamp and internship opportunities
- Conference meet ups
 - Let us know where you'll be on LinkedIn or Slack!

Subscribe for Intro to HPC Announcements

Announcements related to the Introduction to High-Performance Computing Bootcamp are sent via the mailing list. Emails will be sent when the call for applications opens and if there are any updates to the deadlines.

Subscribe

The bootcamp in few pictures:

Your peer mentors, hard at work:

Project leads hard at work:

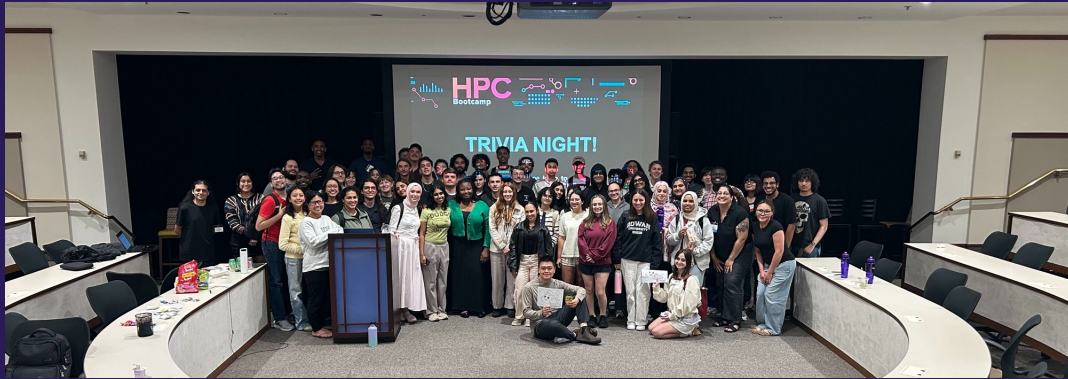

Renaissance-styled

*Created by Gemini

Thank you!

Post-Bootcamp Evaluation

<https://forms.cloud.microsoft/g/3CpBYUEdnF>

Share your photos!

Professional photos will also be uploaded to this Google Album in the next few weeks.

